RE: Simpson-Quin v. Montejano, et al., Index No. 23-CV-08113(MMG)
 Letter Request to Adjourn Conference due to emergency situation

Dear Hon. Justice Garnett:

This office represents defendant 19 India Fee Owner, LLC. (“defendant” or “movant”) in the above-referenced matter. Please accept this correspondence as compliance with Rule B (5) of the Court’s Individual Rules, as due to an emergency situation the undersigned is respectfully requesting that the August 13, 2024 conference be adjourned to August 27, 2024. All other parties have consented to this adjournment and there have not been any prior requests to adjourn this conference.

The emergency situation involves the health of my 86 year old mother in law, who following an episode on Sunday is now scheduled for a significant surgical procedure tomorrow morning, and I should/would like to be at the hospital during the procedure. Mr. Donnelly, the other attorney from my office who has also appeared in this matter, is away on vacation this week, and cannot attend the conference in my stead, thus the requested adjournment.

Thank you for your time and consideration of this matter.

Application GRANTED. It is hereby ORDERED that the August 13, 2024 post-fact discovery conference shall be ADJOURNED to Tuesday, August 27, 2024 at 9:30 a.m. in Courtroom 906 of the Thurgood Marshall Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, New York 10007. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate Dkt. No. 63.

SQ ORDERED. Dated August 12, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael C. O’Malley
